This zine was created on the traditional homelands of the Mary's River or Ampinefu Band of Kalapuya as part of Dr. Luhui Whitebear's spring 2023 WGSS/QS/ES 499/599 Indigenous Feminisms class.

As a collective of Indigenous and Non-Indigenous scholars, we recognize the necessity to contend with the reality that we continue to benefit from the displacement of Kalapuya while attending Oregon State University.

Following the Willamette Valley treaty of 1855 the Kalapuya were forcibly removed to reservations in western Oregon. Living descendants of these people are now part of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Community of Oregon (<https://www.grandronde.org>) and the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians (<https://ctsi.nsn.us>).

Recognizing lands and Indigenous peoples are minor steps in the right direction. Centering your politics around #LANDBACK efforts, supporting Indigenous peoples' earnest protests as land and water protectors/defenders, and donating your time, money, and efforts to Indigenous-led causes are actions you can take to support Indigenous peoples and their futures.

"These oppressions result from the accumulation of hurt sustained by our people over a long period of time.

Our communities are reduced to a sub-standard definition of normal, which leads to a sensibility of defeat, which in turn calls the victim to the table of lateral violence and ultimately changes the beliefs and corrodes the system from within." - Lee Maracle

COLLECTING DATA

REASONS FOR THE LACK OF QUALITY DATA INCLUDE UNDERREPORTING, RACIAL MISCLASSIFICATION, POOR RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN LAW ENFORCEMENT AND DIFFERENT NATIVE COMMUNITIES, INSTITUTIONAL RACISM IN THE MEDIA, AND MORE.

WHAT IS RACIAL MISCLASSIFICATION?

IS THE INCORRECT CODING OF AN INDIVIDUAL'S RACE OR ETHNICITY. MISCLASSIFICATION TENDS TO FAVOR THE LARGER RACE, SO AMERICAN INDIANS AND ALASKA NATIVES ARE OFTEN MISCLASSIFIED AS WHITE.

MURDER

IS THE THIRD-LEADING CAUSE OF DEATH AMONG AMERICAN INDIAN / ALASKA NATIVE WOMEN.

Only 116 of them were logged in DOJ database

1. Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls.

ACCORDING TO THE URBAN INDIAN HEALTH INSTITUTE:

- 506 MMIWG cases were identified across 74 urban cities.
- 128 were cases of missing Indigenous women.
- 280 were cases of murdered Indigenous women.
- 96 were cases with an "unknown status".
- 28 The median age of MMIWG victims.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER?

BRINGING TO LIGHT THE STORIES OF THESE WOMEN THROUGH DATA IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF MOVING TOWARD MEANINGFUL CHANGE IN THIS HORRIBLE SCENARIO.

CRISIS

Based on the "Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls" report produced by the Urban Indian Health Institute.

An abstract painting on the left side of the page, featuring thick, vertical strokes of red, orange, and yellow, with a base of blue and dark brown. The texture is rough and expressive.

"It is no accident that white masculinity is constructed the way it is in the United States, as European invasion of the Americas required a masculinity that murders, rapes, and enslaves Native and African peoples. It is a masculinity that requires men to be soldiers and conquerors in every aspect of their lives. A masculinity rooted in genocide breeds a culture of sexual abuse."

I grew up hearing stories about escaping

 moving to the US
 to send $ back home after multiple imperial and colonial and "we know better

But what did we think about what our migrations meant

"MISSING + MURDERED: FINDING CLEO" is a podcast published by CBC Podcasts. Connie Walker investigates the death of Alberta Williams in Season 1 and Season 2 investigates the disappearance of a young girl named Cleo.

"STOLEN" is a podcast put out by Gimlet. Connie Walker is also the host for this podcast. In Season 1 Walker investigates the disappearance of Jermaine Charlo and Season 2 Walker investigates and works with her father's story of surviving St. Michael's Boarding School.

Shilowa

I am red because of clay collected from the marrow of earth, molded to carry memories of love

I am red from the tears shed mourning the futures that never come

I am red from drinking the sweet nectar of paintbrush whose petals will soon become a crimson lacquer

I am red because I chose to open my heart in hopes you'd never be forgotten

I am red because of molten silver whose glow radiates heat awaiting their transformation

I am red due to countless lives of kin who never saw sunrise again

I am red from the bites of fire ants ferociously protecting their own

I am red for believing I could trust this world with your safety

We are red for all that has been subjected to our bodies in belief that we would not rise from the soil meant to be our resting place

We are red in honor of those whose legacies refuse to be forgotten for we carry their stories
